*Those who failed can email me (by March 15th 2008) an essay on the following topics:

1. Discuss Hockett design features using English as an example.
2. What are the most important differences between the German and the English pronunciation system?
3. What is meaning? How can we analyse it? Use as many examples from English as possible!

(each topic at least 1000 words, all three at least 5000)
