

Information about the 6. American-African-European Summer School 2012 in South Africa

Planned date:	15 September – 01 October 2012
Locations:	University of KwaZulu-Natal, Durban and University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, each one week
2012's Summer School topic:	“Ubuntu. South African Leadership in the Global Economic Crisis” (to be confirmed)
Max. number of CUT participants:	10
Further international participants:	University of Texas at El Paso, New Mexico State University, both USA
Expected costs:	800-900 Euro airfares, 700-800 Euro accommodation, food, entrance fees, traveling within Germany and South Africa etc.

Third party funding is intended both on initiative by the CUT Faculty of Economics and Business Administration as well as by the CUT Summer School participants themselves (for instance DAAD, PROMOS (IUZ) or other institutions).

We are looking for your application!

Deadline:	31 January 2012
Content (in English):	Curriculum Vitae, letter of intent, latest certificates, confirmation of study progress/process
Please address your application to:	Chemnitz University of Technology Faculty of Economics and Business Administration PD Dr. Andrea Fried Tina Obermeit, M.A. 09107 Chemnitz
... and send it via e-mail to:	tina.obermeit@wirtschaft.tu-chemnitz.de .

Corresponding selection interviews will be held in February and March 2012.