Each Erasmus/Exchange student is registered with an academic unit. The academic unit assigns the academic advisor during the registration period.

Living in Istanbul: Accommodation

On-campus Accommodation

Boğaziçi University offers on-campus dormitory facilities across its campuses; however, accommodation capacity is limited. Please note that dormitories may not always be located on the same campus where a student's academic courses are held. Dormitory applications for the Fall 2026-2027 semester are expected to open online in September 2026. Exchange students will be eligible to apply through the same online application system. Detailed information regarding the application process and important dates will be shared directly with our nominated exchange students in due course.

Boğaziçi University campuses are located in central and well-connected areas of Istanbul. Depending on the campus, private student residences may be available within walking distance or easily accessible via public transportation, including metro lines. The University is currently compiling a list of recommended private accommodation options, which will be shared with exchange students. This will allow students to review and compare multiple housing alternatives before arriving in Türkiye for their mobility period.
