On a posteriori estimates for hybrid discontinuous Galerkin methods

Herbert Egger[1]

We discuss a class of a-posteriori error estimators for hybrid discontinuous Galerkin methods. As two particular instances, we derive an estimator of residual-type, and a second estimator based on equilibration. Both methods yield certified upper bounds for the error without generic constants.

[1] Karl-Franzens University Graz, Institute for Mathematics and Scientific Computing, Heinrichstraße 36, 8010 Graz, Austria, herbert.egger@uni-graz.at