

EuroBrake 2024

Organised by

FISITA

EuroBrake Student and Young Engineers Opportunities Programme

Application form

Personal details

Name:

Address:

Email:

Telephone (including country code):

Have you previously participated in the programme? Yes: No:

Students only: education and course details

Name of educational establishment:

Course name:

Course level/degree (BA / Masters / PhD):

Supervisor/course leader name:

Young engineers only:

Date completed education:

Current work placement:

Work placement company name:

Start date:

What benefits are you hoping to gain by participating in the 2024 programme?

Personal statement:

For students and young engineers studying on a course which includes study or a project involving braking technology only

- Maximum 500 words
- The poster should align with at least one of the themes of the appropriate conference (see application form)
- No figures preferred but can be included if essential
- Written in English
- Your poster abstract should contain a clear description of the main scientific, technical, economic and/or practical points to be addressed, applied methodology and achieved results paying particular attention to those aspects of the work which are new, innovative and unique

Poster abstract: