

Data Protection Information

As part of this study, personal data is processed, i.e. collected, analysed and stored. The project participants agree to comply with data protection regulations.

You are not obliged to provide your personal data; however, if the data is not provided, participation in the above-mentioned study is not possible.

1) Legal framework

The legal framework for the processing of personal data is your voluntary electronic consent in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 letter a) GDPR).

2) Explanation of terms

‘Study’ means the scientific investigation described in the participation information with the above-mentioned designation. ‘Completion of the examination’ means the time at which your data has been fully collected. ‘Completion of the study’ refers to the point in time at which the data of all participants in the study have been fully recorded.

3) Data types

The following data will be collected:

- a) data collected during the examination (e.g. answers in the questionnaire, test and measurement results) as presented in the participation information.

4) Purpose

The data collected during the examination will be used for the research purposes stated in the participation information. That data (paragraph 3a) can be further processed in anonymised form for other purposes (see paragraph 6).

5) Type of storage

Technical and organisational protection measures ensure that the data, according to paragraph 3a, is protected from access by third parties.

6) Access, anonymisation

The people directly involved in the project have access to all data in accordance with paragraph 3. These people are listed by name as 'project members' in the participation information. The access will be exclusively used for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 4. The project participants are obliged to maintain confidentiality towards third parties.

The data will be collected in anonymised form, i.e. no person-identifying data will be collected. Thus, the collected data (paragraph 3a) cannot be assigned to your identity at any point in time.

The data collected in the study (paragraph 3a) can be made available to the public in this anonymised form.

All data can be made available to the data protection officer of the University of Technology Chemnitz and the responsible supervisory authorities for inspection purposes upon request.

7) Deletion of data

Your data cannot be deleted subsequently.

8) Storage of data

All data is stored in accordance with the periods stipulated by law, regulations of the professional associations or regulations of the publication organs (e.g. professional journals). At this moment, the storage period amounts to 10 years after the completion of the study. The person responsible for the storage of that data is:

9) Name and contact information of the project management

If you have any questions regarding this data protection information or the data processing procedures in our study, please contact the project management of this study at any time:

This data privacy policy is the currently available valid version, last modified on 02.04.2025.

CONSENT TO DATA PROCESSING

I hereby declare that I have been fully informed about the handling of my data, in particular about the collection, evaluation, storage and publication as well as the options for deleting my data. I have read and understood the data protection information. All my questions have been answered to my satisfaction. I have received a copy of the data protection information and the data protection declaration of consent. I had enough time to think about my decision regarding the handling of my data and to decide freely. I am aware that I cannot withdraw my consent to data processing.

I explicitly and voluntarily, i.e. free from coercion and pressure, consent to my personal data being processed to the extent and for the purposes described.
