Summary:

APA (American Psychological Association) style is most commonly used to cite sources within the social sciences. This resource, revised according to the 6th edition, second printing of the APA manual, offers examples for the general format of APA research papers, in-text citations, endnotes/footnotes, and the reference page. For more information, please consult the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, (6th ed., 2nd printing).

Cite your source automatically in APA

Website  Search by URL, title, or keyword

Powered by Citation Machine®
a Turnitin service

Please use the example at the bottom of this page to cite the Purdue OWL in APA.

General APA Guidelines

Your essay should be typed and double-spaced on standard-sized paper (8.5" x 11"), with 1" margins on all sides. You should use a clear font that is highly readable. APA recommends using 12 pt. Times New Roman font.

Referencing - In-text citations

1. If not stated otherwise in the journal's style sheet, use double quotes ("Text Text Text").
2. Introduce the quote with a single phrase that includes the author's surname:

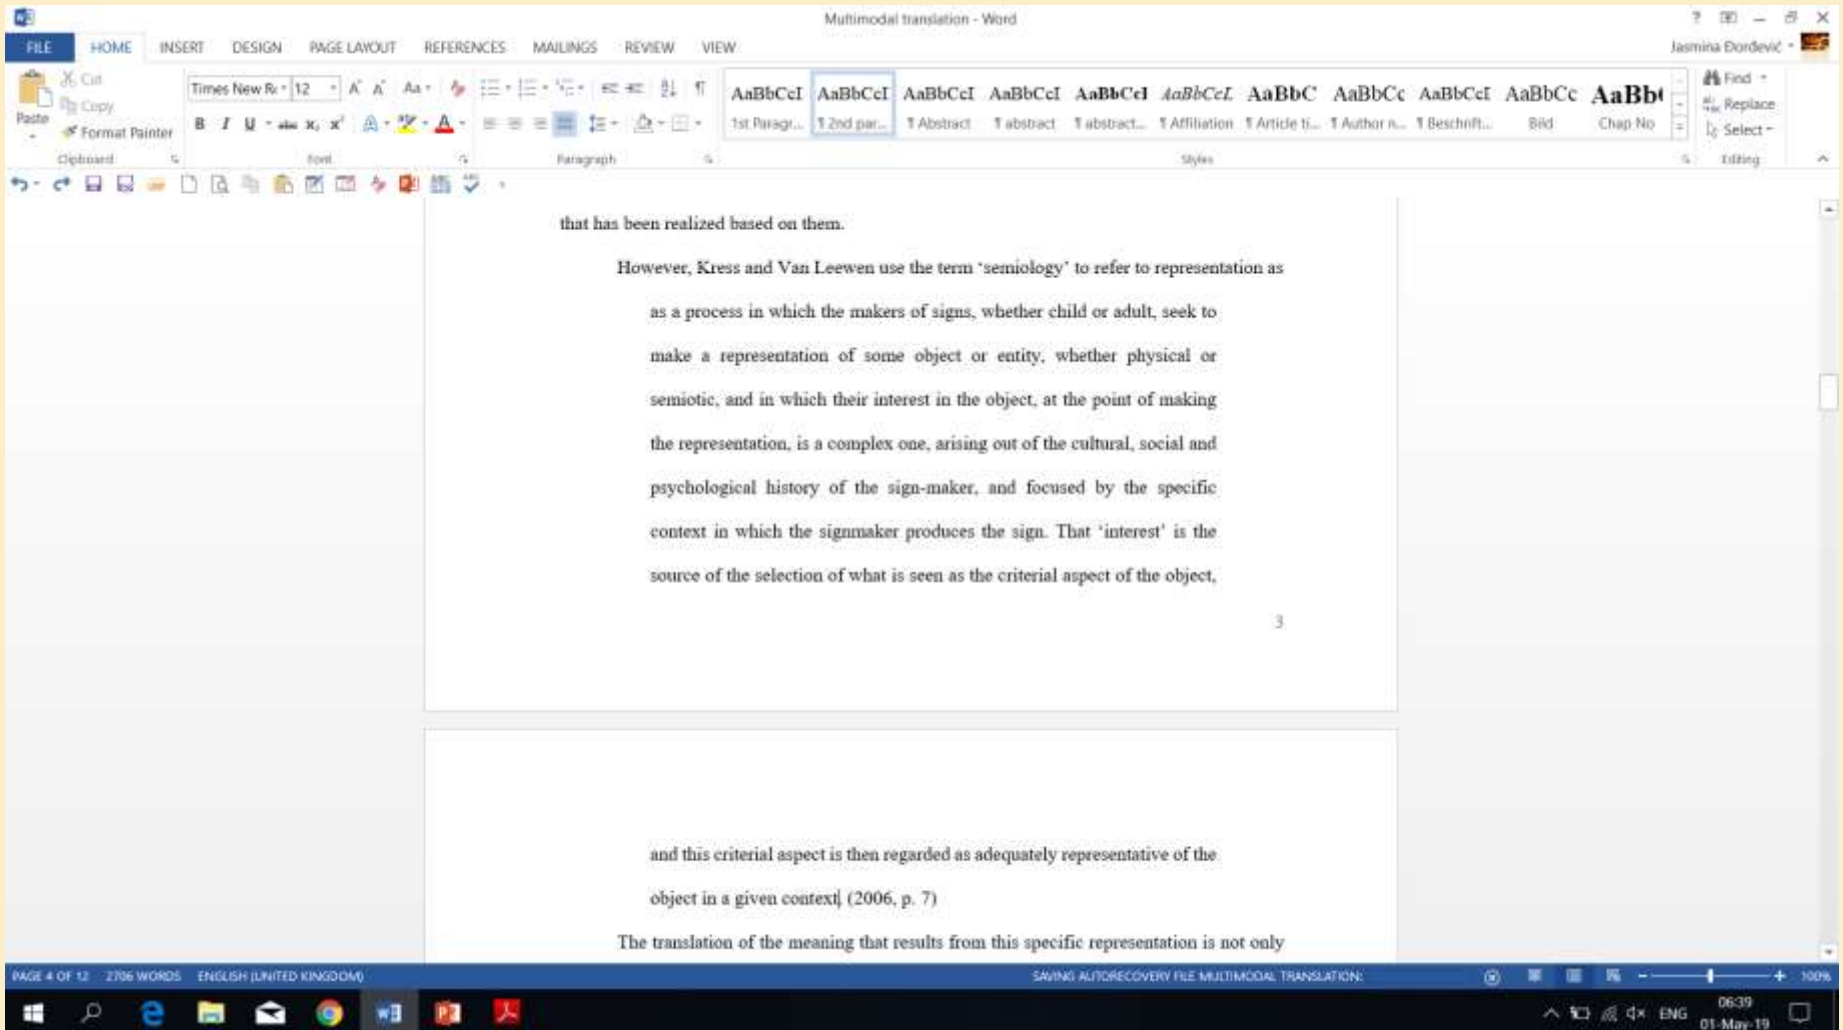

According to Author (2019), "Text Text Text..." (p. 150).

3. If the author is not named:

He stated, "Text Text Text..." (Author, 2019, p. 150).

4. Quotations longer than 40 words need to be indented.

Example of long in-text quote

References

Formatting

1. Use formatting options provided in Word.
2. Set the format of your article before you start typing it.
3. Keep it simple and remember: less is more.

Final tips and tricks:

1. Use referencing tools.
2. They are available as desktop and online versions.
3. One of the easiest ones to use is Mendeley.

Abstract:

Multimodal transcription, particularly as devised by Thibaut (2000), provides an effective methodological tool in the analysis of audiovisual text. The method involves breaking down a film into single frames/shots/phases, and analyzing all the semiotic modalities operating in each frame/shot/phase. The purpose of the present article is to show how this methodology can be adopted (and adapted) to formulate strategies for subtitling, particularly in relation to the translation of Italian film material into English, but also into German, French and Spanish. The method provides insights into how meaning is 'made' (in the Hallidayan sense of the expression) via the combination of various semiotic modalities, and thus how the verbal...

Beyond consensus: reflections from a democratic perspective on the interaction between climate politics and science

van der Sluijs J, van Est R, Riphagen M

Current Opinion in Environmental Sustainability
2010 vol 2 (5-6) pp 409-415

The international debate about the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) and climate science in the aftermath of 'Climategate' gives cause for reflection. While the main emphasis lies on evaluating the procedures of the IPCC during the production of the fourth assessment report, too little attention has been paid to the political role of the IPCC.
